CONSTRUCTION SET

(Imported from Germany)

Enjoy the thrill of building working models of every description, no matter how simple or how complicated.

STABA is so eminently different to any other construction set that it is often wonder that it has gained world-wide popularity amongst schoolboys, students, Y.C., students of the University for Technology and Hobbyists.

STABA fitted building which can be screwed together at any spot, can be easily built to any required shape—and construction plates, metal felt and other almost infinite models' imagination.
